CORAM; A.P. DESHPANDE, J.
DATED; 25TH OCTOBER, 2007

P.C.;

1. In the present Writ Petitions, an order passed by the State Government has been challenged. After filing of the Writ Petitions, petitioners have filed a Review Petition before the State Government and in view of the filing of the said Review Petition before the State Government, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the writ petition. A limited request is also made for disposal of the Review Petition expeditiously. The learned AGP on instructions from the State Government, submits that it would be feasible to dispose of the Review

Petition within a period of 12 weeks from today. Hence permission to withdraw the writ petition is granted. Writ Petitions are dismissed as withdrawn. The State Government shall decide the Review Petition as undertaken, within a period of 12 weeks from today. The ad-interim order operating in these petitions to continue for three weeks.
